

HEADPHONE STAND

H1

Enhance the appearance of your desktop with the sleek and simple design of the H1 headphone stand. Suitable for most headphones, this low-profile stand features a contoured silicone cradle to prevent impressions from being left on any headband up to 2 inches wide. Its steel frame and 6-inch wide base ensure maximum stability, while additional silicone padding on the bottom of the stand keeps it firmly in place. Choose between black, silver and white matte finishes to complement your style and space.

TECHNICAL ILLUSTRATIONS

SLEEK APPEARANCE

The H1's slim steel frame takes up minimal space while ensuring ample stability. Place it anywhere on your desk to keep your headphones within arm's reach.

A PERFECT FIT

H1 measures 10" tall to accommodate most headphone sizes. Its contoured silicone cradle comfortably fits headbands up to 2" wide while preventing impressions being left on softer materials.

HIGH STABILITY

Constructed out of steel with a 6" wide base, the H1 is designed to prevent tipping while holding up to 6.6 pounds. Silicone padding on the bottom of the base also helps to keep the stand firmly in place.

MULTIPLE COLORS

Aesthetics matter. Choose between black, silver and white matte finishes to match your style and space.
